About me

I am a cultured and communicative research-based Interaction Designer, creative concept developer, event coordinator, language enthusiast, and storyteller. I strive to create innovative, creative and multi-media solutions: from words to print, web, digital and immersive experiences. Currently enrolled at the UX Design Institute.

Strategic Designer + Translator

GC is specialized in developing concepts for complex issues concerned with climate, water, infrastructure, energy and waste in developing countries. In addition to researching and visualizing these complexities, I was responsible for:

- Concept development + presentation design.
- Writing, editing + translating (NL-ENG / ENG-NL) for contracts, newsletters, websites + presentations.
- Information Design, Graphic Design + UI design.

Creative Concept Designer + Assistant Event Coordinator

Involved in the organization, production and (concept) design for marketing campaigns of cultural events. A "spider in the web" of stakeholders, artists, designers, press, printers and PR agents. Also responsible for:

- Identity Design, Graphic Design, Web Design, city dressing, and location design.
- Collect, edit, schedule and publish online + offline content.
- Write + translate (ENG) for project plans, newsletters, press, social media,
- Recruit and guide sponsors, site crew and volunteers.
- Assistant programmer artists + entertainment.

Event Producer and Programme Coordinator

Functioned as 'fixer-upper' and problem solver in the final phase of on-going projects. In addition to recruiting participants by engaging with local entrepreneurs, communities, students and creative parties, I also:

- Scouted of event locations.
- Created and managed schedules and programmes.
- Produced and coordinated events.

Soft Skills

I am a hands-on problem solver with organizational skills. I am social, communicative and feel at home in multidisciplinary and team-oriented environments where I can also work independently. I am an analytical and critical thinker with an open mind and a desire to learn and become better at what I do every day.
